COUNCIL CUTS HACKERS' TAX

Vote Big Reduction in Fees For Licenses By The Year.

TO ENFORCE ORDINANCES

Day Men Must Pay Fee in Advance. Tags For Each Licensed Car. To Force Building of Pavements.

Gettysburg jitney men and the Borough Council went into session Wednesday evening on the question of license fees and as a result a reduction of approximately sixty per cent was decided upon for licenses for the year. No charge was made in the cost of the day license.

After considerable discussion in open meeting and a conference between a committee from the Council and representatives of the jitney men, it was voted that the licenses for the ensuing year would be as follows:

For five passenger cars, $10 and for seven passenger cars, $15. For hackers by the day $2 for a five passenger car and $3 for a seven passenger machine.

Representatives of the hackers told the Council that during 1917 and 1918 when there was plenty of business here they had been satisfied with paying $25 and $35 for a license for the year, but that now they considered the charge excessive. Another factor in the discussion was the statement by one of the hackers that a list had been prepared of more than fifty men who at various times haul parties over the field that never pay a cent to the Borough.

Contained in the action of the Council was the understanding that hereafter all day licenses must be paid in advance instead of after the day is over. The reduction of the cost of the license for the year, it is believed, will practically do away with the day license and increase the number who will take out licenses for the year.

Because of the proposed hearing of the hackers, the payment of the tax for the year which was due June 1 was postponed but is now payable at the office of the burgess. Each hacker will receive a license tag which he is required to display upon his car. The Council is determined to stop unlicensed from operating and with the use of the tag it will be possible for the officials to check up.

STATE BOOMING LINCOLN HIGHWAY

Pennsylvania Association Revived at Recent Meeting in Capital City.

TWO LOCAL MEN ELECTED

Robert C. Miller Selected as a Vice President And Howard C. Mitinger as Secretary-Treasurer.

Definite steps toward the reorganization of the Pennsylvania Lincoln Highway Association were taken at a recent meeting in the Penn Harris hotel at Harrisburg attended by a number of prominent men of this state who are vitally interested in the welfare of the "Main Street of the Nation."

The outcome of this session was the election of James F. Woodward, secretary of internal affairs of Pennsylvania, as president; C. B. Connelly, commissioner of labor and industry, as a vice president; Colonel W. D. Uhler, chief engineer of the state highway department, as a vice president; Robert C. Miller, superintendent of public printing and binding, as a vice president; and Howard C. Mitinger, manager of the Hoffman hotel in Gettysburg, as a secretary-treasurer.

These selections are all permanent ones although the organization is somewhat tentative in that several other vice presidents are yet to be selected. The announcement of their names is expected within a week.

The board of directors will also be announced within the near future.

For several years the Pennsylvania Lincoln Highway Association, a subsidiary organization to the Lincoln Highway Association with national headquarters in Detroit, has lain dormant. The purpose of this reorganization meeting was to form a body which would impress the residents of the state with the importance of the Lincoln Highway, promote closer cooperation between the Lincoln Highway Association and the Pennsylvania state highway department, and further the interests of the "Main Street of the Nation" generally.

Every community, not county, bordering on the Lincoln Highway will be represented in the new association. C. William Beales, former state senator and for several years the Adams county counsel on the national Lincoln Highway Association, will represent Gettysburg.

STAVE MILL IN OPERATION

New Establishment in Biglerville is Now Underway.

The stave mill of the Adams County Fruit Packing and Distributing Company located along the Philadelphia and Reading railroad tracks in Biglerville is now in operation. Ten men at present are employed at the mill which is turning out seven thousand staves a day. This number is expected to increase as the workmen become more proficient.

To provide staves at as cheap a price as possible and to use up a quantity of lumber in that section which otherwise would have gone to waste was the purpose of erecting the mill.

PLAN BIG PARK FOR MONT ALTO

Altoona Man Leases Land From State. Start Work This Summer.

TO HANDLE ASSEMBLIES

Gettysburg Would be Side Trip For Organizations That Would Hold Meetings at Park.

An announcement that will be of interest to Gettysburg business men and those interested in a recreational park nearby is made by C. E. McCurdy, of Altoona, to the effect that he has secured a ten-year lease on the Mont Alto park and intends to erect a large camp and summer assembly there. It is Mr. McCurdy's plan to offer inducements to tourists who might come this way to see the battlefield and to conduct parties who camp at Mont Alto here on sightseeing trips.

McCurdy is president of the County Sunday School association in the district where he resides, which may be taken to indicate that Sunday school picnics and conventions will be part of the summer program at the park.

It is not so many years ago that Mont Alto park was the scene of lively summer activities. Excursions were run there from far and near. Sunday school assemblies and picnics were a large feature. The action of Mr. McCurdy in leasing the park may be taken as a step in reviving old customs there.

The new lessee has given his pledge to the state department of forestry to develop the park for the advantage of the people of the state and to provide entertainment and programs at the least possible cost.

Build Up This Summer

This summer will be given to restoring the park and planning the development of a large recreational camp site with an assembly program and instruction course for public school and Sunday school workers, which it is planned to inaugurate during the summer of 1922.

During July and August of this year, the camp will be equipped to entertain about forty guests. These entertainment privileges are offered to the general public. Special inducements are being offered this year to groups, such as:

Sunday school classes, social groups, Boy and Girl Scout troops, Camp Fire Girls, week end parties, automobile tourists parties (overnight entertainment.)

A limited assembly program will be conducted during these months.

Out door living, athletic advantages, hikes and rambles over the mountain, pure mountain water, use of pavilion for group activities, good meals and comfortable beds, sanitary surroundings are among the advantages offered by the camp.

Mr. McCurdy will reach Mont Alto with his family and a few helpers about June 16, and will spend the summer planning the rebuilding of the park for the new purpose.

McSherrystown Student Completes Work This Year.

Adams county will be represented by one student in the largest class ever to be graduated from Pennsylvania State College. He is Francis M. PASTOR DECLINES CALL OF COLLEGE

Dr. Baker Will Continue in Charge of Million Dollar Drive, However.

Dr. J. B. Baker, who was elected vice president of Gettysburg College at the meeting of the Board of Trustees of the institution Tuesday, has declined the offer and has decided to continue as pastor of the St. James Lutheran Church here, it was announced today.

This step was taken after a conference with the field workers in the recent campaign at which they assured Dr. Baker of their co-operation in the Fall if the campaign is taken up on the same plan as that pursued up to the present, that is, the work be done by the alumni and absolutely without remuneration.

The Council of the St. James Lutheran Church at a special meeting Wednesday night granted Dr. Baker the privilege of leaving his pulpit during the Fall when necessary to continue and complete the work with his assistants.

There will be a lull in the campaign until September when the work of raising the remaining $250,000 needed to reach the goal will be started afresh.

CIVIL WAR VETERAN DIES

Gideon Durfee Passes Away At Adams County Home.

Gideon Durfee, a veteran of the Civil War, died at the alms house this morning from complication of diseases. He was 77 years, 8 months and 25 days old.

Mr. Durfee participated in a number of the important battles of the Civil War and was wounded in the leg in the battle here. He was a member of the 11th New York Infantry and during the battle here his unit was a part of the Second Corps. He served three years in the army and was honorably discharged at the end of his enlistment.

Funeral Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the funeral parlors of H. B. Bender, Baltimore street. Interment in the National Cemetery.

Durfee came to Gettysburg many years ago from New York state and for the past three years has resided at the county home.

FORMER STUDENT DIES

Word has been received here of the death in Lewistown of Joseph C. Ulrich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben S. Ulrich, of that city.

A Lewistown dispatch states that the illness of Ulrich, who was 23 years old, "dates back to the fall of 1916 when he was severely hurt in a football game while playing with a Gettysburg College eleven."

Ulrich never attended Gettysburg College but did go to the Academy five years ago. He played football but to the knowledge of members of the Academy faculty was never severely injured in any gridiron contest. Some slight injury therefore must have developed seriously during the past five years.

Young Ulrich attended the Academy here on two different occasions.

COLLATION WAS A RECORD BREAKER

Largest Turn Out of Alumni Wednesday Since Luncheons Started.

FOUR MINISTERS SPOKE

Following Last Event on Program Alumni Began Exit From Scene of Commencement Activities.

What was considered the largest crowd ever to attend a Gettysburg College collation assembled in the Academy building Wednesday afternoon to attend the final event of the 1921 commencement program.

Dr. P. M. Bikle, dean of the college, who has attended practically every collation in the history of the school said the gathering of about three hundred alumni was the largest he had ever seen at a similar event.

The toastmaster of the afternoon was President W. A. Granville who, after welcoming the class of 1921 to the Alumni Association and congratulating the other alumni for such a splendid turn out this year, called on a speech from Dr. J. B. Baker, of Gettysburg. At the June meeting of the Board of Trustees on Tuesday Dr. Baker was named as vice president of the college.

Dr. Baker, who heads the "Second Mile" campaign, said that he looked forward to wonderful development at the institution not only along financial lines but in regard to the college being drawn closer to the college.

The second speaker of the afternoon was Rev. William F. Sunday, class chairman of the "Second Mile," who thanked the men who covered the various territories for their cooperation.

Dr. S. B. Dougherty, chairman of the Philadelphia district in the "Second Mile," told of the splendid progress made toward securing sufficient funds to erect a memorial dormitory.

The remaining numbers on the program consisted of singing "The Spirit of Gettysburg," led by Felix G. Robinson, author of the song; an address by Dr. Marion Kline, of Altoona, who delivered the baccalaureate sermon here; and the reading of an original poem by Dr. J. B. Remensnyder, of Milton.

Members of the Gettysburg Collation Association, of which Mrs. C. F. Sanders is chairman, and their many assistants served luncheon to the alumni.

Following the rendition of that program, the students, alumni and friends of the institution commenced their exit from Gettysburg where they had been for three days to participate in the commencement activities.

National Commander Galbraith's Car Plunges Over Embankment at Cincinnati.

DIED ALMOST INSTANTLY

Another Legion Official Seriously Hurt. Were Hurrying to Catch Train For Chicago.

(By Associated Press)

Indianapolis, June 9—Frederick W. Galbraith, Jr., of Cincinnati, National Commander of the American Legion, was killed almost instantly and two other officers of the Legion, Milton J. Foreman, of Chicago, and Henry Ryan, of Indianapolis, were injured when the automobile in which they were riding plunged over an embankment on northwest side of this city.

Mr. Galbraith suffered a fractured skull and died within a few minutes. Foreman, who is national committee-man for the state of Illinois, and chairman of the national finance committee, suffered a fracture of the skull and injuries to his back and shoulders. He is in a serious condition at the city hospital.

Ryan is chairman of the Americanism committee of the Legion. He was badly bruised and lacerated but his injuries are not serious, physicians say. Ryan, who was driving the machine, said he had been driving rapidly from the Indianapolis Country Club in order to reach Union Station in time for Mr. Galbraith and Mr. Foreman to make a train for Chicago. He reduced his speed to about 20 miles an hour, he said, just before reaching the point where the accident occurred.

Failing to make the turn the car plunged over the embankment, turned a somersault and landed on its side. All the occupants were thrown clear of the car except Ryan, whose left foot was caught beneath the machine, but he was able to extricate himself without difficulty. Hospital attaches said that since the accident Ryan has been hysterical. Mr. Galbraith's body will be removed to Cincinnati for burial as soon as arrangements can be completed.

Call money opened at 6½ per cent the lowest initial rate in several weeks.

COPS LOSE JOBS ON BOOZE CHARGE

Philadelphia Scandal Hearing Results in Dismissal of Three.

KEPT THE POLICE AWAY

Discharge of Cops is Aftermath of Theft of Liquor From Automobile Truck in City Garage.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 9.—The aftermath of the notorious "booze scandal" of the Twelfth police district was staged yesterday in the City Hall, when Acting Lieutenant Thomas Burke and Patrolmen Edward J. Casey and John J. Whalen were dismissed from the force by the Civil Service Commission, and the other two cops implicated, Patrolmen Clarence E. Drennan and Charles J. Scheer, were each fined 30 days' pay. The Commission arrived at these decisions after an all-day session for the presentation of evidence for and against the accused men.

Casey was the only defendant who pleaded guilty to the charge against him, all the others pleading not guilty to all counts, except Burke. He admitted that the specification that he had released one of the alleged bootleggers brought into his station house without the proper procedure was true, but he denied the other charges. The Commission deliberated for several hours before announcing its decision.

When seen directly after the findings were made known, Director of Public Safety Cortelyou said: "I am going to have Drennan and Scheer transferred immediately from the Twelfth district. The Commission fined these two men because it was felt that they had no active part in the theft of the whisky from the truck at the station house, or the attempted escape of the prisoners, but they merely had guilty knowledge of what was transpiring."

All the men were represented by counsel and capital was made of the fact that none of the policemen had a mark against him in his record, previous to this time. Casey, who is attached to the Reserves and was acting as chauffeur for Director Cortelyou at the time of his suspension, was allowed to introduce several letters from business men who wrote in the role of character witnesses.

In their closing arguments to the commission, the defending attorneys asked for leniency rather than for exculpation. The suspension of the men grew out of the scandal last Thursday morning, when three men were arrested driving a truck loaded with $10,000 worth of whisky, taken to the Twelfth district, and instead of being placed in cells were allowed to remain on the truck in the station house garage. The men were caught escaping later in the day, and were returned to the station house with the truck which they had gotten out of the garage. Some of the whisky also found its way into the possession of several policemen at the station.

In his testimony, Burke said that he allowed the men to remain on the truck so that they could keep the police away from the contents and the department would not be responsible for any loss of the consignment when the Federal officers arrived. After telling how he had stationed the men on the truck, Burke said:

"It was 3:15 A. M. when I went to bed, after telling Scheer, who had the 'dog watch,' to keep an eye on the men in the garage. Some time later I heard a noise and jumped up. Sergeant O'Neill had gone into the street and found the two men who had first been arrested and a third man trying to get away with the truck. He brought them back and had them all locked up. I came down and steered the truck back into the garage myself.

"I have often released prisoners without a copy of the charge when they are vouched for by responsible persons and in this case I thought it would be wise to keep the two men on the truck so that they could keep the police away from the liquor. It was the duty of Scheer to see that they did not get away."

THUGS ROB DANCERS

Chicago, June 9.—Four bandits lined up dancers in an inn north of Evanston early yesterday and escaped with loot estimated at nearly 20,000.

The dancers thought it was a joke when a young man with a pistol in each hand commanded them to line up. They quickly obeyed when three other robbers entered, and fired shots into the ceiling.

One woman saved diamonds valued at $15,000 by dropping them into her cup of coffee.

DENY POLITICS IN RAIL REFERENDUM

Brotherhood Executives Declare Roads And Board Responsible For Any Strike.

Chicago, June 9.—Executives of the four big brotherhoods, through L. E. Sheppard, president of the Order of Railway Conductors, denied yesterday before the Railroad Labor Board charges Sheppard said had been made that their "jobs are at stake" and that they would "play politics" in influencing the men to accept or reject the wage cut ordered last week. If a strike is called, Sheppard declared, the responsibility rests with the roads and the Labor Board.

"If the men see fit to accept the wage reduction of June 1, the executives of the brotherhoods will not object," he told the Board. "During the war we were hailed as patriots when we promised no strikes. Now we are told that we can tell the men to do anything and they will do it. The innuendo has been spread that our jobs are at stake and we will play politics. If the time comes, however, when the men must use their only weapons and a stoppage of traffic results, it will be the responsibility of the railroads and this board. If the men are placed under conditions where their sense of justice must revolt, no one can tell what is ahead."

"The brotherhoods cannot be exterminated. A legitimate organization thrives on opposition. But if the law deprives us of our only weapon to fight the endeavors of the railroads to hold the whip hand, we have another resource. If we cannot negotiate in an orderly manner, we can bring the house down on ourselves and take the consequences."

Engineers' Wages Defended
Executives of the four big brotherhoods opened their fight today to prevent application of the wage reduction to scores of railroads which are seeking permission to come in under the Board's decision. Harry P. Daugherty, vice grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, declared it is "not as important that the bondholders get their interest as for the men to get a fair wage."

POULTRY CULLING SEASON IS NEAR

Farm Agent Tells of Importance of Good Management And Feeding.

County Farm Agent Paul Hoffman in announcing a series of poultry culling demonstrations to be held at various points in the county during the week of July 18, calls attention to poultry raising as the importance of good management and feeding. If the birds are given poor care during the summer, he says, many of them will be thrown into a premature molt, making accurate culling impossible. This early molting of the flock will not only make the separation of the poor from the good impossible but will also reduce the egg yield materially. He says:

"The flock should be fed a mash all summer as well as during the winter. Our suggestions are for the mash to be kept in a dry form before the birds at all times, and limited amounts of scratch grain fed morning and night. During the spring and summer the amounts of scratch grain should be gradually reduced, getting the birds to eat twice as much mash as grain. The mash being very high in animal protein stimulates the production during the summer and fall and keeps the birds laying for a long time."

"The mash you are feeding should be a mixture of finely ground grains containing twenty per cent meat scrap. If the birds are getting all the milk they will drink the meat scrap may be omitted."

"A satisfactory mash mixture is as follows:

100 lbs. wheat bran, 100 lbs. wheat middlings, 100 lbs. corn meal, 100 lbs. ground oats, 100 lbs. meat scrap. "Never shift the birds' quarters or make any sudden changes in feeding, as production is apt to be checked and the birds thrown into a molt."

SIMS STANDS BY SPEECH

Rear Admiral WM Not Repudiate Single Word.

(By Associated Press)
London, June 9.—Rear Admiral William S. Sims, United States Navy, is quoted by the press association today as saying this morning with regards to the speech he delivered on the Irish question here Tuesday.

"I stand by all I said—every word of it. I shan't repudiate a single word I said and I see nothing un-American in it, even if Senator McCormick does."

Admiral Sims, who this morning said he had not received the cablegram reported to have been sent him by Secretary of Navy Denby inquiring if the Admiral was correctly quoted in the press reports of his speech has arranged to have the cable message delivered to him as soon as it reaches London.

HARDING AGAINST A SUPER-POWER

Delivers Commencement Address at American University in Washington.

PEACE OF NATIONS THEME

Would be no More Wars if All Nations Are as Unselfish as The United States And Canada.

Washington, June 9.—President Harding, delivering a commencement address yesterday at American University, here, found the subject of world peace occupying so prominent a place on the program that he was prompted to depart from his prepared manuscript and declare for the preservation of peace by sovereign States without the interference of a world "super-power."

The President's remarks followed an address by Newton W. Rowell, K. C., of Toronto, Canada, who suggested that the best contribution North America could make to civilization was "for men on this side of the water" to stand together behind the movement for peaceful settlement of international disputes. Another speaker who touched on the question of peace was J. J. Jusserand, the French Ambassador, and the general discussion developed such a trend that Bishop John W. Hamilton, the presiding chancellor, referred to the gathering as a "peace conference."

"An International Anthem" An added touch of the same character was given by the singing of a song which appeared on the commencement program under the title of "An International Anthem" and which, rendered to the tune of "America" and "God Save the King," recounted how

"Two nations by the sea,
Two nations great and free,
One anthem raise."

Before the singing began the American, British and French flags had been raised together over the outdoor speakers' platform.

"I do not think I could let this occasion pass," said the President in beginning his address, "without giving assent to many of the appropriate and appealing things just uttered by Dr. Rowell. I liked his expression that American and Canadian ideals are in common, and when he spoke about the North American contribution to present-day civilization and to the world, it occurred to me that the example of two great peoples living side by side in peace, in confidence and in mutual understanding is about the finest contribution that two nations could give to the world."

Revises Former Motto
"I have said on many occasions that if the nations of the earth were as honest and unselfish as our republic there never would be another war. I will revise it today and say that if all the nations of the earth are as unselfish and devoted to their ideals as the United States and Canada there never will be another war."

"But if I may say so without a discordant note—for there is none in my heart—I call attention to the fact that the United States of America and the Dominion of Canada have dwelt side by side and settled their controversies satisfactorily without resort to a super-power, but by the exercise of the sovereignty of free peoples dealing with one another. If we can commit civilized humanity to abiding righteousness and everlasting justice and inspire them with our example, we will have made a long stride toward the peace the world craves."

UNION LEADER DEAD

John Golden Was President Textile Workers of America.

New York, June 9.—John Golden, for many years president of the United Textile Workers of America, died today at his home in Brooklyn after an illness of several weeks.

John Golden was to the textile union labor movement of America what John Mitchell was to the mine workers—a leader who worked his way up from the ranks. He was born in Lancashire, Eng., in 1863, where, as a boy, he began work in the cotton mills. Blacklisted he said, because of his activity in the Mule Spinners' union, he came to the United States in 1884 and located at Fall River, Mass., where he obtained employment at his trade.

It was in 1902, when Golden was treasurer of the National Mule Spinners' Organization of the United States and Canada, that the convention of the United Textile Workers in session at Lowell, Mass., elected him president to succeed James Kanney and each year, for 19 successive years, Golden has been returned as head of the union labor body with its 175,000 to 200,000 members.

FREIGHTER HITS ICEBERG HEAD ON

Great Ice Fields Said to be Moving Into Southern Waters.

Halifax, N. S., June 9.—The British freighter Seapool struck an iceberg off the New Foundland coast yesterday and is slowly making for St. John's with her forefoot broken and her forepeak full of water.

The position given by the Seapool was 48.20 north latitude, 48.50 west longitude, or approximately 300 miles southeast from Newfoundland.

Advices received by the Canadian naval staff here said that the steamer was not in need of immediate assistance.

The message follows:
"S. S. Seapool collided with iceberg 48.20 North 48.50 West. Forefoot broken. Making water in forepeak. Proceeding slowly to St. John's, N. F. Does not require immediate assistance."

The Seapool arrived at Montreal from Sydney on May 24 and sailed from Montreal June 2 for Dublin.

Help Is Near
The S. O. S. call from the Seapool was picked up by the British passenger liner Orduna, approximately 200 miles away. The Orduna stood by to render assistance if needed.

New York, June 9.—Reports received from ships at sea indicated the presence, at 9:30 o'clock last night, of at least one large and numerous small icebergs approximately 700 miles southeast of Halifax.

The Coast Guard cutter Seneca, attached to the international ice patrol, is on duty in that vicinity.

For several weeks steamers arriving here have reported vast ice fields which docked Saturday, reported sighting giant bergs which forced her to rest motionless for more than two days in a dense fog.

WAS PAID TO STEAL CAR

So Owner Could Collect Insurance Is Story.

The Chambersburg police department has announced that partial confirmation has been received of the story told by Herman Golling, of Pittsburgh, that he had entered into an agreement with David Hirschman, of 1476 Dormont avenue, that city, to steal his auto and keep it away for 90 days so that the auto theft insurance could be collected. According to Golling's story, Hirschman was to report the car stolen on either June 3 or 4, and telephone messages exchanged between Chambersburg and Pittsburgh verified part of this story.

Golling's arrest, details of which were withheld by the police department until an investigation could be made, was effected last Thursday night. He in company with Howard Lipsey, aged 24, of Philadelphia, and Paul Dackis, 20, excited suspicions of R. L. Dipple, St. Thomas garage owner who notified the Chambersburg police.

When the party arrived in that town the trio was taken into custody when Golling confessed. He said Hirschman asked him to take the car and keep it for 90 days, so that the insurance might be collected. After that the auto was to be Golling's property.

Inquiry at the automobile division of the State Highway Department showed that Golling had given the right name of the owner of the car, Pittsburgh police have been sent word of the theft. The youthful trio is in the Franklin county jail pending disposition of the case.

BERRY CROP NEAR END

Demand At Market Brisk and Prices Remain High.

Once more strawberries were the chief product in demand on the curb market and as a result the price did not fall below twenty cents a basket even for berries of inferior quality. There were few of really high grade and these were bought first regardless of the price of thirty cents. Peas also disappeared quickly in the market baskets of the buyers at twenty cents a quarter of a peck. Currants were offered at eighteen cents a basket and sold slowly.

The majority of the market men who handle strawberries are of the opinion Friday will see the last picking and Saturday's market will be the last opportunity to secure berries. Others said they would have a few berries for the Tuesday market.

TAKE IT FROM ME

ON PLATFORM AS LINCOLN SPOKE

Mrs. Clarissa Sterrett, Who Died in Illinois, Recalled Vividly The Occasion.

News of the death of Mrs. Clarissa Sterrett, of Decatur, Illinois, former resident of York county, has been received by friends in York.

Mrs. Sterrett attended the dedication in the National cemetery on that memorable 19th day of November, 1863. She had a seat on the speaker's platform and distinctly heard the address by President Lincoln which has since become a classic. The events of this occasion were clear in her mind as long as she lived, and more than this she kept a diary of her trip to Gettysburg and the events of the dedication. So impressed was she with the dramatic scene that she straightway wrote the story of it, not waiting till she reached home. This valuable historical record and other papers of no less importance were preserved by Mrs. Sterrett and will pass into the hands of her daughter.

Took Three Days

Mrs. Sterrett's parents lived thirty-five miles from Gettysburg and to attend the dedication was at the cost of considerable time and effort. It was a long drive in a slow moving vehicle through the hills of Pennsylvania. The trip took three days, one day to go, a day for the dedicatory ceremonies and a day to return. There were six in the party, the father, two sons, two daughters and a neighbor. They went in two vehicles, the neighbor furnishing one and the Clines the horses for both. The first day's drive brought them to within three miles of Gettysburg, where they stopped for the night, fearing to go farther because of difficulty in getting lodging. They walked to Gettysburg on the following morning and were early on the scene.

WANTED TWO MILLION HUSBANDS

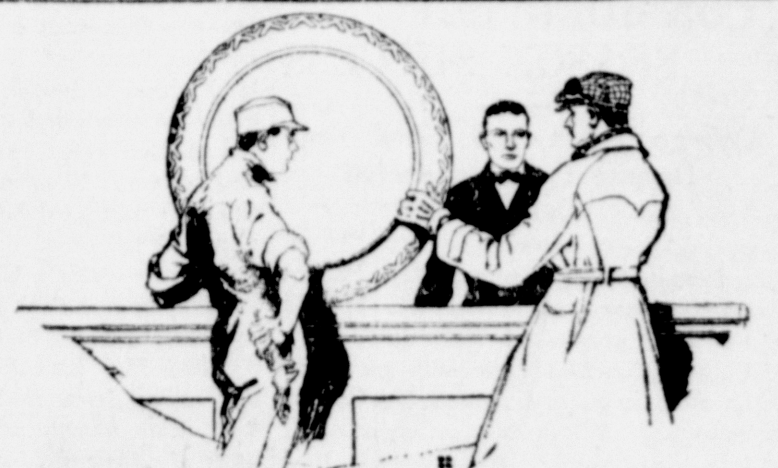

There are two million women in England today compelled to go through life unmarried because there are no men for them to marry!

What are they going to do with themselves?

Is the "right to motherhood" doctrine gaining ground? Or will these two million surplus women find happiness in a "transmuted" motherhood?

Ida Clyde Clarke, who has just returned from England, discusses the whole burning question in Pictorial Review for June.

Pictorial Review for June—on sale now

"It's a really big step forward in tire-making"

"The discovery of Crolide Compound Rubber is going to mean a lot to motorists"

Tell you why I'm selling you this tire. It's because I consider it a really big step forward in tire-making. "It's just this way. If you look at an ordinary tire, you'd say the rubber was one solid, even mass. But it isn't. It's full of millions of 'lumps'—'lumps' so small you can't see them. These 'lumps' are formed when the rubber is compounded, that is, when the strengthening materials are mixed in with the pure rubber gum. Every 'lump' is of course a weak spot in the tire. "This was discovered only recently by the Thermoid Rubber Company experts. Knowing what was the trouble with ordinary tire rubber, these men went ahead and developed a new rubber compound. This new compound is Crolide. It almost entirely does away with 'lumpy' formations."

It can be fairly stated that a Thermoid Tire, because of the smooth, even texture of the rubber, is equal in wear to its oversize in any ordinary make.

You are invited to call and see these new tires for yourself—also the famous Crolide Compound Tubes.

Lefty Clark, Waynesboro's premier left hander, and Kelly, new addition to the Hanover staff, divided honors in a pitching duel in Hanover Wednesday evening. At the end of the tenth inning the game was called on account of darkness. Score 1-1. Kelly allowed six hits and struck out five while Clark yielded eight blows and fanned ten. Yordy hit a single and a double. Pete Shipley, Delaware College coach who played with Martinsburg five seasons ago, is now covering second for Waynesboro.

RAWLINGS ON RAMPAGE

Reggie Rawlings, the mauling Martinsburg manager who has been pounding the pill with great vigor throughout the entire season, hit a home run, double and two singles in four times at bat Wednesday. Martinsburg won from Chambersburg, 13-8. Seven batters were hit by pitched balls in the wild contest.

Batteries: Miller, McGuire and Mulaney for Martinsburg; Bowman, Keenan and Staylor for Chambersburg.

BLEW UP IN THE SIXTH

After pitching airtight ball for five innings, Phillips, of Hagerstown, blew up in the sixth and Frederick won easily, 6-4. Caton, Frederick shortstop, hit two doubles and Wagner, Hagerstown left fielder, a single and a triple.

Batteries: Ramsey, Blethen and Stover for Frederick; Phillips, Berry and Russell for Hagerstown.

CONSIDER 1921 SEASON SUCCESS

College Team Had Good Year Despite Two Unexpected Defeats.

Despite the two unexpected defeats at the hands of Mount St. Mary's the 1921 season of the Gettysburg College baseball club will go down in athletic history among the list of successes. Those two setbacks came like thunderbolts from heaven into the ranks of local sport enthusiasts ruined all chances for a season closely rivaling that of 1919 when due mainly to the pitching of Putty Menchey, Gettysburg won every collegiate game on the schedule.

That the 1921 Plank Prancers are entitled to commendation is due to the fact that they trimmed their three foremost rivals, Bucknell, Dickinson and Franklin and Marshall, a total of seven times. The principal object of every Gettysburg College team is to defeat these three rivals and in that respect Ira Plank's tossers succeeded admirably this year, defeating Dickinson three times and Bucknell and Franklin and Marshall each twice.

Eleven games were won during the season, two tied and three lost. Western Maryland, which was defeated 8-0 and 7-0, was the only team on the schedule which could be termed weak, notwithstanding the fact that Mercersburg is a prep school aggregation.

The pitching of Cal Plowman and the hitting of Chic Myers were to my mind the most unlooked for features of this year. From an erratic inflied and fair outfielder Plowman developed into a hurler who stood forth most prominently until the last game of the year. Myers, counted upon last year as only a fair substitute for Yarrison, came through with many hard and timely blows.

Other features which were more expected were the pitching of Wise, despite his sprained back, the fielding of Kyle, the all around work of Gingerich, the mid season hitting of Mordan, the showing of Keiser both in the field and at the bat, and the flashes of form demonstrated by Shaulis, Captain Redcay and Captain-elect Hersh.

RUTH RUSHES FROM LOCKUP TO FIELD

Serves Six Hours For Speeding. Gets in Game in Sixth Inning.

New York, June 9—It takes more than a jail sentence to keep Babe Ruth from playing ball at the Polo Grounds.

Babe served six hours—a technical day—in the Traffic Court "pen" today, made a wild dash out to the field and played three innings of a winning game against Cleveland.

After paying his $100 fine for hitting the high spots on Riverside Drive about a week ago, he began serving one day "in confinement" because this was his second offense. If the meter of a newspaperman's taxi which followed him to the park could be depended upon, Babe violated the self-same speed law before he had been out 10 minutes. He covered the nine miles to the Polo Grounds in about 19 minutes.

As four o'clock, the time for his release, approached the same torpedo roadster that twice led to his arrest awaited him outside the court. He sped away from a cheering crowd of fans and newspaper photographers with a policeman on the running board to clear the way and Magistrate McGeehan seated beside him to see that he would not be "pinched" again.

He had part of his uniform under his clothing, and changed in time to swing a bat in the sixth inning. The crowds in the stands did not recognize him at first. There was a pause, then the crowds rose to their feet and welcomed him aporously.

He walked to first, stole second and made third on the second out. Baker, who then came to bat, grounded out, retiring the side.

Babe got one more chance in the eighth, but was put out after a weak blow to second. He did not have any other chance to shine, but the fans did not care when the Yankees rallied at the end of the ninth and put over two winning runs.

SAYS DEMPSEY IS A BUM

Carpentier Was Slow To Join French Army.

Washington, D. C., June 9—A resolution designed to prohibit the Dempsey-Carpentier fight at Jersey City, July 2, unless Congress meanwhile shall have "fairly treated" Americans who served in the world war, was introduced in the House yesterday by Representative Gallivan, Democrat, Massachusetts.

In a statement Representative Gallivan characterized Dempsey as "a big bum who dodged the draft," and declared that France had been at war for months before Carpentier joined the colors.

"The man who will pay $50 for a ringside seat to look at these two 'fighters' overwhelmed members of the last Congress with their letters of protest against paying a mere pittance of a soldiers' bonus to real champions," Mr. Gallivan said. "It would not have cost these men individually $50 to have helped meet the cost of a soldier bonus bill."

"I am opposed to this international bout on American soil, where millions of American money are to be wasted, until the American service men and women have been fairly treated by

Mr. Gallivan made no special request for expediting his resolution and it will go to a committee in regular course. Members of Congress, who regarded its introduction with mixed forms of interest, were wondering what, if anything, Congress might do to carry out its terms if it were so disposed.

THE OLD HOME TOWN BY STANLEY

The Meaning of Smoothness

Each man's interpretation differs. His knowledge is limited to the cars he has driven sufficiently to know intimately.

So when we speak of Hudson smoothness of operation it means, though may not convey, an entirely different quality of smoothness than is understood by those whose motoring experience is limited to another car.

Hudson has developed smoothness to an unusual degree because of the way its exclusive Super-Six motor minimizes vibration. The bird-like motion of the car is due to its design. It not only contributes to motoring comfort, but also accounts for Hudson's reliability throughout a long life. The vibration shocks that in less balanced cars fatigue driver and passengers, likewise fatigue the car and robs it of endurance.

Learn Hudson smoothness by actual experience. Let us show you.

ORIGINAL SCOUT TROOP REUNION

Meeting Recalls Numerous Incident Which Happened During Ball Game.

(Communicated)

Ten years is a long time but it will be as a day to the fellows who were members of Boy Scout Troop 1 of Gettysburg when they got together Friday evening of this week.

Both the old Scout Masters, Dr. J. B. Baker and Cy Flagle, are in town and with about twenty of the original forty in and around town ye old time reunion will be second to none as reunions go.

The story is told of a baseball game at Boiling Springs during the summer camp of 1911. Boiling Springs came down to play but were shy one man. They looked all around but could find no one. They were about to give up when a tall young mountaineer hove in sight. The players asked him to play but he knew nothing about the game. As he didn't even know what a baseball or bat was they stuck him out in right field—they were all the same to him.

Potty Menehey was shooting them over with Bill Timmins catching. The score was two all. The Boiling Springs batting order came around to the "hick" and the other players told him, "Just go over there, pick up one of those clubs and when that fellow throws that white ball at you, hit it a mile."

Timmy and Potty thought they would have some fun. The first one was a banana outshoot. The rube never blinked an eye. The next one was a high inshoot. The hick might as well have been a stump for all the attention he paid to that one so Potty said to himself, "He's dead I'll just lay a straight one across. He did. The rube watched that ball for an instant. All at once there was a sharp crack. A storm was coming up and most of the gang though lightning had struck nearby. But it had not. It was the rube's club hitting the ball. It shot out over Potty's head on a line and went high over centerfield. The hick stood and watched it go until

Kidney And Bladder Troubles Conquered or Money Back

For 40 years, said Dr. Carey, I have been prescribing Marshroot for kidney and bladder sickness and now that I have retired from active practice I have made arrangements with leading druggists to dispense this wonderful prescription at a moderate price, on the money back if dissatisfied plan.

Beware of kidney disease—thousands die of it every year who ought to be enjoying the blessings of life and health. Watch the symptoms. If you have specks floating before the eyes, puffy eyes, clammy feet or moist palms, backache or sideache, you ought to get a bottle of Dr. Carey's Marshroot right of way.

NOTE—Dr. Daniel G. Carey was a practicing physician for many years and his great Prescription, Marshroot aided thousands of sufferers from kidney and bladder troubles. Hereafter you can always get this effective prescription at Peoples Drug Store and all reliable pharmacists the country over. Keep in mind the name, Dr. Carey's Marshroot prescription No. 777. No other medicine can take its place.

the Boiling Springs fellows noticed him standing there. "Run, you big boob," they shouted. The batter turned and reaching in his pocket said, "Why should I run—I've got money to pay for the ball."

To this day the score still stands two all for just then the storm broke.

PROPOSES NEW BONUS

Would Give Soldiers Tax Exempt Bonds.

Washington, June 9—A bill proposing that the government issue to former service men five per cent tax exempt bonds in amounts of not more than $750 for service overseas and $600 for home service has been introduced by Representative Volk, Republican, New York. The bonds would expire in ten years, would be negotiable and would be issued to war veterans at a rate of $1.75 and $1.25 a day for service overseas and in the United States, respectively.

As an alternative to the issuance of bonds the bill also would provide for paid-up insurance. The face

GREAT YIELD OF WHEAT PROMISED

Will Be Forty Three Millions More Bushels Than Last Year.

Crop estimates that are in harmony with the indications for an excellent wheat yield in this county were announced Wednesday by the Department of Agriculture of the United States. The country's combined winter and spring wheat crop promises to be 43,000,000 bushels larger than last year's, the report says. There will be smaller crops of oats, barley and hay than were harvested last year while the apple crop will not be half as large as that of 1920 and the peach crop will be much smaller than last year.

Winter wheat, which a month ago promised a crop of 629,000,000 bushels came through May in bad shape in several of the important producing states and as a result the forecast of production showed a reduction of 51,000,000 bushels, bringing the total to the same quantity as produced last year. Kansas, premier wheat state, reported a decline in the condition of the crop from 84 per cent of a normal on May 1, to 60 on June 1, which resulted in a reduction in that state's forecast by 33,000,000 bushels. In Nebraska the condition dropped from 92 to 75 and in Oklahoma from 84 to 70.

The spring wheat crop forecast indicates 43,000,000 bushels more than last year's crop. The condition of the crop is better than a year ago while the acreage is somewhat smaller than last year. An acre yield of 13.9 bushels is forecast compared with 10.8 bushels last year.

THREW ACID BOMBS

Were Used In Class Scrap At University Of Wisconsin.

Madison, Wis., June 9—Bombs made of sulphuric acid, sugar and potassium iodide were thrown during the annual Freshman-Sophomore class fight at the University of Wisconsin last Saturday night, it was testified yesterday before the student self-governing body investigating the clash which resulted in the severe injury of eight participants. Following the affray the student senate voted to abolish all forms of hazing and banned the historic green cap worn by Freshmen and the annual class rush.

A student witness said the signal for throwing the missiles, which severely burned several students, was given by the firing of a gun. Other bombs, he said, contained phosphorous, kerosene and carbon bisulphide.

ANTS UNDERMINE BUILDING

Wichita, Kan., June 9—Hordes of ants, driving upward, from the earth through mud tubes are threatening destruction to the $100,000 Exchange Building at the stock yards here, Oaken lumber stored under the building had been practically consumed and the ants have driven their way up along pipe lines to the woodwork of the west end of the structure which they have tunneled as far as the second floor.

Washington entomologists have identified the ravaging visitor as an Australian or South American ant which drives in armies, overwhelming in time any wood structure in its path.

An attempt to stop the pests by placing fly paper in their paths was frustrated when the ants built a dirt bridge across the obstruction. By insulation and shutting off the ants' return to the ground, it is hoped that the army can be exterminated.

Reformers rant 'bout women's skirts, And cry, "Go call a cop!" 'stead can't complain, for they Refuse to take a drop.

Took all—and gave nothing! Till the baffled, maddened miners forced her to marry the worst man in camp!

And that only starts a story that fairly tingles.

You who saw Dorothy Dalton in "The Flame of the Yukon", know what to expect in "The Idol of the North."

You who did not—better come!
